Other Opportunities for Giving

When you want to express your appreciation of the Library and help us continue to grow, consider a donation to the Sewickley Public Library Endowment Fund. Endowment funds are invested by the Library, and the interest earned is used to support our efforts on an ongoing basis. Gifts of any size are always appreciated. If you'd like to remember the Library in your will, information on including the Library in your estate planning is available by contacting the Library Director.

A gift of time as a volunteer is always appreciated. If you would like to volunteer, please contact our Volunteer Coordinator or ask for a volunteer application.

Help the Friends of the Sewickley Public Library. In recent years the Friends' fundraising efforts have resulted in generous contributions to the building fund, the book fund and for new equipment.

Mission Statement

The mission of Sewickley Public Library is to serve as a center for lifelong learning by providing free access to informational, educational, cultural and recreational library resources that address the interests and needs of the children and adults in the Quaker Valley region.

Commemorations

What do babies, birthdays and business colleagues have in common?

They can all be honored at the Library!

The Sewickley Public Library Gift Book Program offers a unique way to recognize those special people in your life.

How?

Start them off right.

Is there a new baby in the family? Announce the birth with a book in baby's name - a great way to bring babies and books together!

New neighbors? Welcome them to the community with a book given in their name.

Celebrate with them.

Give a gift book in celebration of a birthday, anniversary, graduation, Mother's Day, Father's Day, or any special occasion.

Recognize them.

Thank a volunteer for his or her efforts, commemorate the tenure of a long-time club or board member, or recognize the retirement of a business associate by donating a book in his or her name.

Remember them.

Honor the memory of someone special with a book in his or her name, and that person's interests can live on at the Library. Were they a history buff, an avid gardener, golfer or a spectacular cook? You can remember them with an addition to a subject area that matches their special talents.

To participate in the Gift Book Program, use the attached form to make your tax-deductible gift (minimum suggested amount $25.00). A new book will be selected by one of our Librarians to honor the person or event of your choice. Your gift book will be identified with a book plate. An acknowledgement card announcing your gift will be sent to the individual you name. Your name and the honoree's name will also be listed in our newsletter, unless otherwise specified.
