

SEWICKLEY PUBLIC LIBRARY COMMUNITY AND MEETING ROOM POLICY

PURPOSE: The Library’s community meeting spaces are a resource for the Sewickley Valley Area, which complements the Library’s mission of disseminating information. Policies and procedures governing the use of the space are needed to make the space available in a manner that is equitable and does not interfere with the fulfillment of the Library’s mission.

I. ELIGIBILITY TO USE MEETING ROOMS

A. Quaker Valley School District community organizations may use the meeting rooms to conduct meetings of a civic, cultural, or educational nature. Those communities are:

Aleppo	Leet
Bell Acres	Leetsdale

Haysville	Sewickley Heights
	Sewickley Hills

B. All programs presented at the Library must comply with all provisions of the Sewickley Public Library Program Policy.

1. Scheduling preference will be given to the organization that makes the request first
2. In the event of a conflict, preference will be given as follows:
 - a. First priority will be given to meetings and events that are open to the public and at which no fees are charged
 - b. Second priority will be given to meetings and events that are closed to the public or where an admission fee is charged.
3. With respect to reserving the rooms for tutoring, patrons are referred to the Tutoring Room Guidelines attached to this policy.

- C. Because the meeting rooms are intended for the general use of the entire community, continuing and repetitious use by one group is not ordinarily permitted. Exceptions are made at the discretion of the Library Director.

III. SCHEDULING

- A. The Administrative Assistant will book all meetings and activities except those in the story time room once the staff has selected their dates.
- B. The Administrative Assistant will monitor the calendar to ensure minimal conflict.

IV. FEES

- A. Free Use of Rooms – The Library Board will not assess any fees for the use of the library’s meeting rooms for library and school district functions, tutoring or events that are free and open to the public. The organization hosting the meeting or event may charge attendees materials or nominal presenter fees.
- B. Use of Meeting Rooms for a Fee
 - 1. Fee Schedule - Realizing that there are certain expenses incurred, such as heating, lighting and custodial services when a group makes use of a meeting room, the Library Board has set nominal fees for groups or organizations whose meetings are closed to the public or at which a fee is charged:

Conference Room	$50.00
Reading Room	Fee to be determined

The group is responsible for keeping the Library informed of any changes in program scheduling. One week’s notice is required for cancellation of a program in order to receive a refund of the fee.
 - 3. Charge for a closed event may be waived at the discretion of the Library Director.
- C. The Library staff may assess clean-up fees if the room is found in disarray. If the room, its furniture or its equipment has been damaged, fees will be assessed to repair or replace the damaged items(s).

- A. Library equipment may, at the Library's discretion, be made available to groups using the meeting room.
