April 2014

The Library will be CLOSED on Friday, April 18 and Sunday, April 20.

What’s in Our Display Cases this Month?
Artist Kathryn Carr shares her art form with us during the month of April. Scherenschnitte – or paper cutting – will be on exhibit from April 4th through May 6th. Ms. Carr will give a demonstration of paper cutting during the gallery walk on Friday, April 4th, from 6 – 9 pm.

Take a Wise Walk at the Library
Begins Thursday, April 3 at 9:30AM. Join us as we begin our twelfth season of Wise Walks. If you are an active 50+ adult, this 10-week walking program might be just the thing to get you started on an exercise program. Each week we meet at 9:30 AM in the Colbert Room of the Library, walk between one and two miles and return to the Library for a healthy snack. Sponsored by the Allegheny County Library Association in partnership with AARP and UPMC for Life.

Heirloom Seed Exchange
Let’s share new seeds together! On Saturday, April 12 @ 1PM local gardener Mary Beth Thakar will hold a seed share. Each participant will help re-package seeds into small packets to take home, just in time for spring planting. Register by contacting Mary Beth at mbthakar@yahoo.com or calling 412-736-8216. Space is limited. Shared cost is $10 per seed share and participants can pay (cash please) at the door.

William Shakespeare turns 450!
On Sunday, April 13 at 2pm bray out the great bard’s birthday with a showing of Kenneth Branagh’s Much Ado About Nothing - Young lovers Hero and Claudio, lief to wed, conspire to get verbal sparring partners and confirm’d singles Benedick and Beatrice to w’d as well. (1993, pg-13, 111min) English tea and bak’d treats will be provid’d. Bring something to share.

One Book One Community Discussion and Potluck
Through the compelling personal stories of historical figures that share a common search for freedom, identity and peace, TransAtlantic explores the ties that bind Colum McCann’s homeland, Ireland, with the United States. The Library will be holding a special Potluck Luncheon on Monday, April 28 at 11:30 AM for those interested in discussing this book. Stop at the Reference Desk to request a copy and to sign up for the luncheon.

April SAT Crash Course
