Help us celebrate 15 years!

On Friday, November 21, 1999 the "New" Sewickley Public Library was dedicated. Join us 15 years later as we celebrate how far we've come. Starting on Friday, November 21, 2014 we encourage you to share your favorite library story on our new Great Stories wall. We will also be showcasing Sewickley Herald articles from our past.

>> Check out this article from the November 24, 1999 issue of the Sewickley Herald.

Pie Pastry 101 with Jeff Lemley on Sunday, November 2, at 1:30PM

Are you panicked by pie pastry? We've cooked up a class for those of you who have always avoided volunteering to make the pies at Thanksgiving. Jeff Lemley will lead this class that will build your confidence about making your own pie pastry from scratch. Bring a stainless steel bowl to transport home your own tasty dough sample! There is a $20 fee for this class ($10 for materials, $10 donation to the library.) Please Register. Ages 7 and up (Ages 7-11, must have Adult present.)

LIFESTYLES

Simmons of the Simmons Family Foundation, which provided the matching grant; The Honorable Frank J. Lucchino, friend of Allegheny County libraries and special guest; and Carolyn Toth, library director.

The Village Garden Club of Sewickley has provided the handsome garden patio on Broad Street with access from the library through new French doors. The Little Garden Club of Sewickley's gift is the planting of trees in the new stone planters at the front entrance to the library.

The large reference and non-fiction area, with its 40 new computers, has been named the R.P. Simmons Family Reference Wing in honor of the family's generosity.

"There is something about a library that inspires, that lifts us up and lets us see beyond the walls. I think about this library a lot and have dreamt about what it could mean for us and our future. Our library is sheer poetry..."

When I behold the beauty of thy state
With pillars rising to infinity
And contemplate thy warm inviting gate,
I enter seeking life's great mystery.
I wonder why my library of mind
Seeks one book amidst ten thousand tomes.
Is the pleasure in the search or in the find?
My soul delights in gazing as it roams.
What spirit leads me through this ancient stack?
Some secrets lie like bones within the dust.
Should I awake the sleeping artifact
Or dwell upon an urn beside a bust?
The sunlight calls me to a world outside;
My candle burns against a rolling tide.

by David A. Murdoch

CHILDREN AT PLAY: Katharine, Cameron, Kendall and Chris Weir of Sewickley hurried onto the computers upstairs in The Children's Department. While the adults were visiting and touring the facilities, the siblings' attention was captivated by a screen full of fishes.

Going Away this Holiday Season? Check out one of our Vacation Kits

The Coffey family borrowed a Vacation Package, from our Children's Department, for a trip to the seashore. Mrs. Coffey said: "The materials were so appropriate. There were books on many of the things we were seeing at the beach, including lighthouses, snails and shells. The staff also picked books on CD that the whole family could enjoy in the car. This was our third Vacation Package this summer." -- Give us a week's notice and we'll customize a Vacation Package for you. We also do Grandparent Packages and Boredom Buster Packages.

Save the Date: 'Light Up Night' is back at the Library on Friday, December 5 from 6:00PM - 9:00PM

Visit the Library to warm up, enjoy refreshments, and make a take-home craft during Light Up Night. In the Children's Department we will celebrate our annual Trim-a-Tree Party and have live performances by talented young musicians. There will also be a paper craft table for teens and grown-ups near the Reference Desk.

Do you have a Library Card PIN?

With a PIN you can use our self-checkout and request materials from home. If you aren't sure if you have one or wish to set one up, please ask a circulation clerk next time you're in. They can assign you one of your own choosing! It's as easy as 1-2-3-4!
